The Destination: Melbourne, Australia

You will spend three weeks in Melbourne, Australia, one of the most livable cities in the world. Experience the best of all worlds: suburban living with an amazing city outside your door and exceptional academics with experiential learning opportunities.

The Experience Highlights:

The Global Education Network (GEN) is a collaboration of premier postsecondary education institutions providing students with an international learning experience for employment in a global economy. Box Hill Institute (BHI) in Melbourne, Australia is Kirkwood's GEN partner for this program. A GEN short-term program is a three-week study abroad course exclusively designed for your area of study, whether it be art, music, early childhood education, youth work, disabilities services, culinary arts, business, automotive technology or any other area Box Hill supports. GEN will design a tailored itinerary for you, including:

- Participation in college courses at Box Hill Institute in your area of study.
- Industry/site visits and/or placements in your field.
- Intercultural learning experiences and excursions.

“The best way to describe my time in Melbourne was life-changing. The combination of cultural excursions, friendships and the academic component made it a complete experience.”

-Kirkwood, Global Education Student, 2015
