French Embassy in New York Partners with Kirkwood Community College

The French Embassy in New York is interested in partnering with US community colleges including Kirkwood to provide intercultural exchange opportunities for students and faculty. The Consul General from the Chicago office of the French Embassy visited Kirkwood's campus to kick-off the relationship last month. Dawn Wood also visited several of the Institutes of Technologies near Paris last month during her visit that was sponsored by the French Embassy. Kirkwood is in the process of developing several opportunities for virtual exchange as well as study abroad as a result of these visits. Au revoir!

F1 Student Features

- If you are leaving the country during Winter break, NOW is the time to get a travel signature on your I-20!
- Check the end date on your I-20. If it is ending in the next month, stop by International Programs to discuss your options.
- Moving over the Winter break? Be sure to update your address on EagleNet.
- With Christmas coming, you may want to spend the holiday with an American family. Ask for details about the Mentor Family Program!

Study Abroad News

Successful International Education Week Event

During International Education Week more than 35 students and employees took part in the Passport Photos and Pizza event. Participants got their photo taken for a U.S. passport for free and enjoyed free pizza. Kirkwood plans to repeat this event next year.
